EXTINGUISHING THE CHALICE

POSTLUDE
Fugue (William Selby arr. E. Power Briggs)

Our congregation acknowledges that we meet on the ancestral lands of the western Abenaki. We honor their elders past, present, and future and seek wisdom to guide us in healing harm to Indigenous peoples.

*Please rise in body or spirit

The flowers today are given by Chase Roeper.

To all who come and lift their voices, to all who cook, to all who clean up afterward, thank you!
Rev. Lane

Covenant of the Peterborough Unitarian Universalist Congregation

As Unitarian Universalists, we embrace covenant as our foundation and love as our guiding principle. We strive to:

- Welcome, include, and appreciate a diversity of people and ideas
- Listen respectfully, speak honestly and directly, and assume good intentions
- Make decisions and take actions that promote justice and equity
- Support our community through generosity, service, and compassion
- Nurture our spiritual connections to nature and the sacred

When we fall short of our aspirations, we will accept feedback and work to heal harm. We will practice forgiveness and welcome it.

ALL ARE WELCOME.

Unitarian Universalism is a living tradition that has changed in many ways from the Christian roots of its Universalist and Unitarian heritages, and it continues to evolve today. Our congregations are bound together by six values, all of them centered in love:

Interdependence: We honor the independent web of all existence and acknowledge our place in it.

Pluralism: We are all sacred beings, diverse in culture, experience, and theology.

Justice: We work to be diverse, multicultural, Beloved Communities where all feel welcome and can thrive.

Transformation: We adapt to the changing world.

Generosity: We cultivate a spirit of gratitude and hope.

Equity: We declare that every person is inherently worthy and has the right to flourish with dignity, love, and compassion.

We Belong to One Another

Words: Amanda Udis-Kessler, Music: John Wyeth

We belong to one another. To each other we are bound as we build a world together full of joy that we have found.
What we are we owe to others. When they need us, we respond.
We belong to one another and we hold a common bond.

We rely on one another at the dawning of our days when we learn from those around us how to live in loving ways.
As we grow, we need each other and the gifts that we can share.
As our lives come to their ending, how we need each other's care.

We give thanks for one another, for each heart and hand and face.
We are grateful for the blessings that infuse our lives with grace.
May we offer our abundance. As we're given, may we give.
In our thanks for one another, may we help each other live.
