

We nurture a loving, inclusive, spiritual community
embracing all ages;

We witness for our liberal Unitarian Universalist faith with compassion and generosity;

We serve and inspire the local and global community through social action and the arts.

As a certified Welcoming Congregation, we offer a religious home for people of all gender identities and sexual orientations.

The flowers this Sunday are given by Ed and Marsha Morrow in memory of Ed's mother, Mary Boone Morrow.

Special thanks to everyone who helped make this service happen. We sometimes make mistakes when trying to name everyone individually from week to week so please, look around, see who the helpers are and thank them.
