EMBODIED PRACTICES

I. Sacred Circle Dances (Lucy van Leeuwen)
Parish Hall

Each dance of these dances will be patiently taught and, together, will help bring us to a sacred place of stillness and renewal:

Dark of the Moon: a dance of hope to envision new beginnings

Lake-Too-Soon: a dance that tenderly holds those of us who are grieving

Evening of Roses: a candle dance to honor an intention or person that we hold dear

II. Sacred Chant and Song (Lisa Jane Lipkin)
Sanctuary

These pieces will be taught orally, with special care for those with hearing loss.

UUA Values

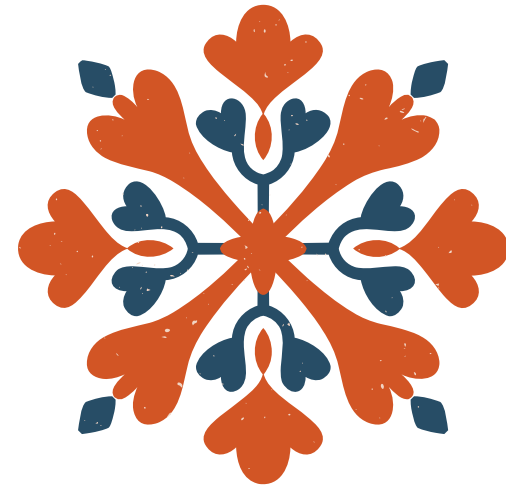

Love is at the center of Unitarian Universalism's shared values:

- Interdependence: We honor the interdependent web of all existence and acknowledge our place in it.
- Pluralism: We are all sacred beings, diverse in culture, experience, and theology.
- Justice: We work to be diverse, multicultural, Beloved Communities where all feel welcome and can thrive.
- Transformation: We adapt to the changing world.
- Generosity: We cultivate a spirit of gratitude and hope.
- Equity: We declare that every person is inherently worthy and has the right to flourish with dignity, love, and compassion.

Masks are optional and are available from the ushers. If you have respiratory symptoms, please join us by Zoom.

The sunflowers on our altar each week remind us to hold the people of Ukraine--and all who suffer the violence of war--in our caring, our hopes, and our prayers.
