POSTLUDE

Life Calls Us On (Jason Shelton)

Our congregation acknowledges that we meet on the ancestral lands of the western Abenaki. We honor their elders past, present, and future and seek wisdom to guide us in healing harm to Indigenous peoples.

*Please rise in body or spirit

Today's flowers are given by Anna Aasgaard and Milo Lombard in celebration of all who have November birthdays!

My gratitude goes to all who helped today, all who came, all who cooked, and all who join in the feast. Happy Thanksgiving, everyone!
Rev. Lane

Harvest Dinner 2025

Join us today after worship for our annual Harvest Dinner Potluck! Peter and Ann have been hard at work in the kitchen roasting turkeys, and we would love for you to be part of this wonderful meal. Come and share in the food and community!

If you go to the Living Local Art Fair here at PUUC on November 29, be sure to check out the baked goods being sold by Robins Nest Nature Preschool. The proceeds from their bake sale will be divided among the three churches serving community suppers in Peterborough.

Covenant of the Peterborough Unitarian Universalist Congregation

As Unitarian Universalists, we embrace covenant as our foundation and love as our guiding principle. We strive to:

- Welcome, include, and appreciate a diversity of people and ideas
- Listen respectfully, speak honestly and directly, and assume good intentions
- Make decisions and take actions that promote justice and equity
- Support our community through generosity, service, and compassion
- Nurture our spiritual connections to nature and the sacred

When we fall short of our aspirations, we will accept feedback and work to heal harm. We will practice forgiveness and welcome it.
